

The Carson Daily Appeal

CARSON CITY:

Wednesday, April 9, 1873.

CONNECTICUT, like the little girl with the curly forelock, when she is good—

—is very, very good,
But when she is bad
She is horrid.

Only last Fall, with all the seductive tones and promises of Liberal Republicanism to lure her from the path of rectitude, and all the eloquence of a repentant Democracy to persuade her into an evil course, she remained virtuous and true, and cast her vote for and fortunes with President Grant. Now she relapses back into the dreadful slough of Democracy and makes her bed with Democratic Ingersoll, when she might, with no more trouble and much less of inconsistency, have found safe and respectable moorage for her political armada in the calm and hopeful Haven of Republicanism. There are abundant precedents to justify the employment of the expression, "Ephriam is joined to his idols"—and we might with full literary consistency so dispose of Connecticut; but, inasmuch as it is difficult to prognosticate what "Ephriam" may do at the next election, it is quite as hazardous to thus denounce that capricious commonwealth as it will be for the spasmodically exultant Democracy to consecrate a feu de joie in glorification over the return to the realms of constitutional Bourbonism of this the most wayward and uncertain of the sisterhood of States. The returns would seem to indicate the reelection of Starkweather and Hawley, Republicans, to Congress; and the Democrats elect Ingersoll Governor by a very handsome majority. The New Hampshire verdict is reversed; and the actual politics of the State fall into Republican hands.

IMPORTANT TO MINERS.

We yesterday received the following from the General Land Office at Washington:

[CIRCULAR.]
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE,
March 18, 1873.

The following is an Act of Congress approved March 1, 1873:

AN ACT to amend an Act entitled "an Act to promote the development of the mining resources of the United States."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

That the provisions of the fifth section of the Act entitled "An Act to promote the development of the mining resources of the United States," passed May 10th, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, which requires expenditures of labor and improvements on claims located prior to the passage of said Act, are hereby so amended that the time for the first annual expenditure on claims located prior to the passage of said Act shall be extended to the 10th day of June, eighteen hundred and seventy-four.

By this legislation the requirements of the fifth section of the Act of May 10, 1872, are changed by extending the time for the first annual expenditure upon claims located prior to May 10, 1872, to June 10, 1874.

The requirements in regard to expenditures upon claims located since May 10, 1872, are in no way changed.

W. W. CURTIS,
Acting Commissioner.

THE retort-pungent, indulged in by the Reveille the other day (same that we published) brings out the following from the Sentinel of April 4th:

The editor of the Reveille indignantly denies having received the dispatch from the Executive which we published the other day. Perhaps not; but we can inform him that the document was forwarded to us [with a request to publish] by a gentleman of Austin whose word we would as soon take as the Reveille man's. Our correspondent further stated that he had been permitted to copy the dispatch aforesaid. With this view of the case, we can not well divine how we were guilty of a breach of journalistic courtesy by giving it place in our columns. There was an implied understanding, at least on the part of the editor of the Reveille, had consented to its publication. If we committed an error at all, it was in the fact that we gave too much prominence to a batch of very small game.

MISS DARGON is reading in Salt Lake, and obtains encouraging audiences there.

THE statement of recent victories over the Apaches in Arizona by General Crook are confirmed by letters received at Prescott. The Tontos have surrendered and are coming into the San Carlos Reservation. They acknowledge that the whites are too many for them.

ANNAPOLIS, Maryland, has failed to re-echo the booming and surging of the ground-swell which again tosses into bonyancy the Democratic heart in the domain of bass-wood hams. And yet Annapolis is in the very heart and core of that blessed old gentry where, when Black Republicanism was born, it was anathema maranatha.

The San Francisco Chronicle of Sunday has an article on "Blackguards of the Press." It says there are "about six" editorial blackguards in California. The Chronicle does not mention names, but, judging from the tone of the article, we infer that the writer is one of them. Enterprise.

Oh no. The Chronicle said "in California."

SALT LAKE, April 7.—The Mormon Conference is in full blast. The attendance is very large and still increasing. Brigham Young delivered a long discourse to-day, the main point of which being against Gentile sectarian schools being introduced here from Babylon. He urged mothers to educate their own children and not to allow outsiders to interfere in the Kingdom of God. He denounced the growing disinclination to pay tithing, and said the salvation of the people was endangered by the non-performance of this duty. Apostle Woodruff also urged the importance of the Saints paying tithing, and deplored the waning receipts of the Church Treasury. Press Dispatch.

"Babylon" will make it as difficult for Brigham to collect tithes as its school teachers will make it hard to hold the rising generation of Mormons within the tetherings string of the Church of Latter Day Saints. Apostle Woodruff, if he live a little longer will, while humbly prospecting for occasional pennies in the lean and hungry bowels of the contribution box, sigh for the good old day when a religious delusion made a whole community yield up a tenth of their solid substance to renew the fetters wherein themselves were bound to bigotry and shame.

BUSINESS when combined with pleasure makes a very satisfactory sort of rations, especially when served up artistically and with becoming grace, as thuswise by Bro. Forbes:

CONFERENCE.—The semi-annual Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will commence tomorrow. Preparations on a large scale have been made, and already the faithful are coming in from abroad. It is supposed the attendance will not be quite as large as usual, on account of the fact that Mr. Young has given notice that he will excuse from attendance any one who has the small-pox—will grant him an indulgence—and a good many have it in the Southern settlements. Still, a large throng is looked for. As people will be in the city on this occasion whom we may not see again for six months, we may be excused for making the observation that anybody from abroad wishing to take The New Endowment will find the office in Richard's Hall, Second South street.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Dr. Geo. Ackerman, of some place in Ohio, which we are unable to decipher from the hieroglyphics before us, desires to know something of the whereabouts of his brother Israel Ackerman, aged thirty-nine, who a few years ago was roaming through the fragrant sage of Eastern Nevada. Any one in possession of the information sought, would most probably confer a great favor on the doctor aforesaid, by addressing him at, what appears to be "Laurings P. O., Knox Co., Ohio." P. S.—We forgot to state above that the letter contains an inquiry as to the financial status of the said Israel.—Eureka Sentinel.

OUT AT CARLIN.—Chamberlain has just returned from Carlin. He informs us that the citizens of that town tarred and feathered a man there the other evening. They used pulu instead of feathers, however. This because he committed a revolting crime against Nature and God. Also, that a "panama" exhibition was given there the other evening. It did not meet with the approbation of the citizens, and they showered the artist with turnips, cabbages, eggs and other boquets.—Reno State Journal.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Nixon, convicted of murder, has had a relapse and is not now expected to live.

In consequence of new developments making daily in the affairs of the Bulls Head Bank, the examination of William H. Merritt, Assistant Cashier, charged with embezzling $200,000 of funds, has been postponed.

James Julian, broker, No. 9, New street, gave bonds in $10,000 yesterday, to answer a charge of fraudulently retaining $10,000 in gold belonging to J. M. Dixon. No receipts or vouchers are attached to Dixon's affidavit, and his only witness of the alleged deposit of money is Phillip Stanley alias Daniel D. Right, under indictment for forging certificates of the Toledo, Wabash and Western, and Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad bonds, and counterfeiting revenue stamps. The Notary Public, before whom Dixon made his affidavit, appeared subsequently as counsel for Julian, in whose employ were the sons of Stanley when under his last name as alleged, he attempted to flood Wall street with forged certificates.

The Controller has been instructed by the Board of Aldermen to sue for the recovery of half a million dollars of Court House funds alleged to have been traced to the private bank account of one of the Commissioners.

The men in the employ of the Manhattan Gas Company are expected to strike to-day.

A newspaper correspondent who went down to the wreck of the Atlantic yesterday says the hull of the vessel is broken in several places, and the cargo is broken in bulk, with the bodies of men and women jammed among boxes and crates, presenting a most heartrending scene. In the sleeping apartments were numbers of bodies of men, with bed clothing strewn among them. Broken stanchions and jagged and splintered wood-work had torn the flesh from the faces of many. Others were bruised and battered about their heads, which were red and bloody, contrasting horribly with the features of others.

TOLEDO, Ohio, April 8.—Jones, Democrat, is probably re-elected Mayor by a small majority. Most of the Republican city ticket is elected.

CINCINNATI, April 8.—Johnson, D., is undoubtedly elected Mayor, and probably the rest of the Democratic city ticket, with perhaps one or two exceptions.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—1 P. M.—The German bark Max, which sailed on the 5th for Falmouth, sprung a leak in a heavy gale when fifty-five miles out of port, and returned for repairs.

The annual State Convention of Woman Suffragists meets to-day at 10 A. M. The Board of Supervisors has passed an order making it a misdemeanor to play the strap loop game.

About 6 o'clock yesterday evening a fire broke out in the upper story of a small two-story frame house on Russell Place. While the firemen were at work a woman named O'Day, who with her family occupied the premises, came to the Chief Engineer and stated that her two children were in the house, and said she feared they were burned to death. He endeavored to go into the burning building, but was prevented from so doing. After the fire had been quenched the members of the Department entered the building, and near the front door, which opens on a balcony, found the head and partially burned bodies of the children, one a girl four years of age and the other a boy eighteen months old. They lay on the floor side by side, and from the position in which they laid it would appear that the little unfortunates were endeavoring to escape from the building, when they were suffocated by the smoke.

It is rumored that Moses Seligman, of the well known banking firm of J. Seligman & Co., of this city, with extensive Eastern and foreign connections, has effected an organization with English and German capitalists, with a view of opening a bank in San Francisco on a large scale, with a capital of some $15,000,000. It is said that all the capital stock has been taken.

A prize fight between James Rice and Patsey Hogan, for the light-weight championship of the Pacific coast, is talked of by the fancy.

The Grand Jury have ignored the bill against George Thistleton on the charge of libel, in the publication of his parlor game, called "The Wolf in the Fold." This is another defeat for Laura D. Fair.

A well known wholesale merchant of this city was fortunate enough to hold the ticket No. 44,727 in the Missouri State Lottery, which was drawn March 31, and it drew the $10,000 prize.

JOHN B. WINTERS has discovered what he thinks is a borax field of great extent in Washoe county. A Reno boraxian examined some specimens and pronounces them 75 per cent. of that mineral. Hope it may prove a fortune to John B.

A STRANGE BIRD AT LARGE.—A cockatoo belonging to Jim Orndorff yesterday traveled off and has not since been seen. It cannot fly but is a good pedestrian. Jim says it is as likely to walk off a distance of five miles as it is to stop anywhere in town. Should anyone see the wanderer he will know to whom he belongs. Should he march into a Pintie camp he will be all right, as they will take him and make a nice stew of him. Enterprise.

What's a cockatoo among so many of us?
